

Soga Japan Center Speaker Series
Jan 22 (Mon), 2:00 pm
Friedman Hall 3301 (Political Science Library)

Meiji Occidentalism: Nagai
Kafu's travels to the "West"

Dr. Rachael Hutchinson
Asst. Professor of Japanese Studies
Colgate University, NY

Nagai Kafu, one of Japan's most famous 20th century novelists, lived in Kalamazoo in 1904-1905. His American Stories, partially written in Kalamazoo, is a major classic of modern Japanese literature.

Refreshments will be served.

